

Your Healthcare Facility's Name Is Not A Password

It is important to use strong passwords or a password phrase to protect patient data. As a best practice, passwords should be at least 16 characters long, randomly generated, unique, and include all four character types: uppercase, lowercase, numbers, and symbols.

HHS 405(d)
Aligning Health Care
Industry Security Approaches

Cyber Care is Patient Care

Cybersecurity Awareness Month